Photo Courtesy: Image Source/Stockbyte/Getty Images It seems like everyone is busier these days, and keeping up with everything from work deadlines to kids' sports practices to your pet's vet appointments can make things complicated — there's a lot to juggle, after all. You can print by the year or the month up to seven years in advance. That said, the site also has a few extras for shoppers, including free printable calendars. But the website also offers several free printable calendar templates. Photo Courtesy: Timeanddate.com For full customization, select the site's Advanced Calendar Creator from the Calendar tab on the homepage. However, you also have the option to print them directly from the site by choosing a printable format for the one you need. Photo Courtesy: Calendarlabs.com The site also offers totally blank printable calendars that are customizable for any month and year. After downloading this site's calendars you can edit and update many of the files using Microsoft Office tools. They also include federal and major holidays for extra convenience. Timeanddate.com is a site that provides you with access to and information on time zones, world clocks, weather, moon and sun schedules, timers, calculators and even some fun apps. You can also find printables, like free calendars, at the software's official website, Office.com. Choose from daily, three-day, weekly, bi-weekly, monthly and yearly options. Photo Courtesy: Teamup.com Once you select the template you want, it'll pop up in a new browser window, and you can select which dates you want to print. The options here are basic, but if you're looking for a simple solution and don't want to search through pages of different designs and templates, this site is a convenient resource. Calendar pages also come in handy for doing crafts, teaching young children and maintaining shared schedules at work and at home. Fortunately, you don't need to head out to an office supply store and purchase a calendar. You'll have the ability to choose everything from local state holidays to specific formatting elements to color-coding selections for each day of the week. Calendarlabs.com Calendarlabs.com is another source for all things time and date, no matter what type of calendars you're looking for. Beyond the basics, you'll find dozens of different printable calendar templates on the site, including daily planners, social media calendars, illustrated calendars and more. These include major public holidays, common observances, religious observances for various faiths, moon phases, astronomy events and international observances. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET Teamup.com is the site for the Teamup calendar, a virtual calendar that allows groups like classrooms, offices and families to edit and work from the same online source via their computers and mobile devices. Many of the options here are much more colorful than the others on this list, with bright artwork and themes that can add some pizzazz to your office wall. Photo Courtesy: Microsoft Office It's worth noting that you'll need to have a subscription to Microsoft Office or already have access to the program if you want to download the templates. Once you've customized your template to your liking, you can simply select the option to print, and you'll have an easy-to-access calendar that you can keep on your desk or hang on a bulletin board or the fridge. The calendars here are simple with clean lines and basic colors. It's true the digital age has provided us with a multitude of apps, device and gadgets that help us manage our scheduling conundrums, but sometimes we remember things best when we write them down on paper, old-school style, with physical calendars we can display. Once you're in the Creator, you can design a fully customized calendar in multiple languages.
